Ayse Mont-Blanc Brut Zéro 2006

Colour : Sparkling
Wine of Savoie AOP

Grape(s) Variety(ies)

100 % Gringet
Endemic grape variety of Savoie.

Terroir

Exposure: South / Height: 450 m
Selection of plots on chalky scree slope of Chablais Mountains: little stones.
Plot yield: 50HL/Ha

Vinification

Traditional method: vintage extra-brut (no dosage), produced after over 4 years of growing on slats. This extended grape-growing brings complexity and thickness to the wine.
Rough fermentation on white earth.
Proof: 12,5 °

Tasting Notes

Floral and spicy nose with hints of Mirabelle-plum.

Preservation : 3 to 4 years.
Service temperature: 8°C (40°F).
